

YOU'RE the ONE

Words by : Hep

F real, f real.
We facin' war on the street and the needs to know that this battle is runnin' from high to low and if ya take the time to look behind the scenes Ya know you'd be surprised at what the whole thing means.
It ain't flesh and blood that you're up against but rather spiritual forces playing strong offense.
Ya see the demons are determined to reach their goal their ultimate objective is to steal your soul.

They sayin' "You...
defeat, deface, default da boy."
They sayin' "You...
deceive, degrade and destroy."

Ya know you might be playin' on their side you fall for all they deal you goin' out with the tide because the god of this world is workin' hard to deceive by makin' sin da bomb so that you won't believe upon the One who came to save you very soul by dyin' on the cross so He could make ya whole.

You see this troubled world is like a battle zone the devil's out to claim it for his very own.
He got it organized ladies and gents you better play his way or face the consequence.
Oh yeah, he'll come to you and he can make it seem that you would be supplied with your ev'ry dream but don't you be deceived by Satan, sin or self this ol' restless world is comin' off the shelf.

There'll be no excuse you can't blame your friends because it's all your choice right to the very end and if you don't want Christ to have complete control His home in heaven's out you're gonna lose your soul.

Your friendship with the world comes out as hate for God but you got company because the way is broad.
And though the world is under the evil one it doesn't seem that bad in fact it's - kinda fun!
Since ev'rybody's goin' down the tubes today why should you even try to go the other way?
If that is on your mind you oughta think again that doesn't come from God (it's from the other end)!

The way you go seems right as long as you have breath but when the end comes up you gotta deal with death because life's uncertain and death is sure the cause of death is sin and Jesus Christ is the cure.
You don't mess with death he ices ev'ry bout it's only Jesus Christ who leads the captives out.
And since ol' death is never ever satisfied one day he'll come for you so don't think you'll hide.
But when you see the need to have your sin forgiven death won't be the end but just the start of living.

You thinkin' "All this church stuff I can't agree
'cause ev'rywhere I look I see hypocrisy."
It ain't nothin' new but man, your sight's too low you gotta deal with the Lord and it's Him you gotta know.
You say He doesn't know what's goin' down on the street and doesn't care about the mess that ev'ry brother meets?
"He might be way up there but I'm on my own I gotta deal with the pain and deal with it alone." Yeah, there's a lot with which you must contend but why you do it alone when there's a loving Friend?

We sayin', "You...
you're the one...
He died to make you whole."
We sayin', "You...
you're the one...
He cares about your soul."

Now we're not tryin' here to take you apart No, no, the God who is love is overflowin' our heart.
Once we was broken up tryin' hard to get together all the pieces right and never knowing whether it could ever be done by we ourselves alone until the Savior came to make our lives His own.
It's not religion or a culture that we represent but rather Jesus Christ the One the Father sent.

You know it's One-on-one for you and Him some day you're gonna find out then that He's the only way.
Why don't you let the Lord Who made you do you right?

Don't go the other way you'll never see the Light.

QUESTIONS n ISSUES of LIFE

Where did I come from?	Origin
Who / What am I?	Identity
Where am I?	Relation
What is existence ?	Being
How is it that I know?	Knowledge
What is it all about?	Meaning
Why am I here?	Purpose
What is important to me?	Values
What is wrong?	Situation
What is the remedy?	Solution
What do I about it?	Responsibility
What is redemption?	Salvation
Where am I going?	Destiny
What is the really real?	Reality
What's the object of my faith?	Trust
Who has all rights/authority?	Control

GOT ANSWERS? All you need is One. Each may be answered simply, and most profoundly, in a deeply satisfying 3-word invitation offered by Jesus Christ: Come unto Me. If you come to Him, you won't be cast out.
Matt 11:28-30, John 6:37

If you got the heart to hit up your quest with each of these questions, you'll find you can win when your will has been won by the One Who has done through His Son all that sin had undone. When your will has been won by the Son, you will win, son.

What will you do with Jesus?
Aloof you cannot be;
One day your heart's gonna ask you,
"What's He gonna do with me?"
